Survey Regarding Courtroom Procedures for the Post-Covid Era

The Federal Bar Association Northern District of Ohio Chapter is surveying local practitioners about their recent experiences with remote proceedings in both civil and criminal cases.

Results of the survey will be shared with various groups of judges who are currently deciding on post-covid practices.

Please select the survey link below that is most appropriate to your practice, whether that be civil or criminal.

The survey should take only five to seven minutes to complete.

The survey links will close on May 13, 2022.
